This Lamborghini Urus Performante stands out with Viola Pasifae Special Paint which is part of the bespoke Ad Personam Sportiva specification. The exterior is enhanced by the Full Carbon Fibre Package, including rocker covers and side mirrors complemented by a carbon fibre bonnet with vents and a shiny carbon fibre roof. Compared to the standard Urus, the Performante is 47 kg lighter thanks to the extensive use of carbon fibre. It also features a lower ride height, and steel springs for more precise handling which results in a more direct and responsive drive.
